CARLOS REX.

An Interview with the Mountain Monarch—His Views on the Situation—Sanguine of Success.

[By Telegraph to The Constitution.]

NEW YORK, August 10.—A Herald correspondent has interviewed Don Carlos. In reply to questions in regard to Cortes he said it should be elected fully and fairly by the nation. The Cortes which should express the feelings, interests, wishes and sentiments of the people, ought not to be a mere body of factious politicians, alike powerless for good and strong for evil. The promulgation of doctrines for the overthrow of society and ended with barricade. I wish Spain to march onward to progress and enlightenment, and not remain behind other nations in science and education, without which Spain will be outstripped in the race for wealth and prosperity; but something is radically wrong in the modern current of thought and the system of education—the world rushing into gross materialism and unbelief, which, unless soon checked must end in the utter extinction of the human race the fault being the godless system of education, and the modern methodof investigation. To-day's savants will be called fools by the savants of twenty years hence, for wishing to discard truths that have borne test for ages. Spain shall never submit, if I can help it. Religion and education assist each other. Science without religion is blind. Adding, with smile, "I am at present occupied with other matters. When the enemy is conquered, my throne is restored, and peace and order prevail, then it is time to consider education." Touching Cuba, he said he would offer free pardon and amnesty, and would guarantee a government devoted to the interests of Spain; said he was opposed to slavery and would abolish it with all speed.

Carlos is very sanguine of the success of his cause, declares his prospects favorable, and gives good reasons therefor.

Forrester, a convict from Joliet, Illinois, penitentiary, declares he has been used as a shield for the real criminals in the Nathan murder investigation, and that the murderers are still at large. He threatens to deliver them to justice when he regains his liberty.

The Christian at Work remarks that it has been found that doll babies are but little worth in the struggle for life; and capacity on the part of a woman to sweep out a drawing room without fainting, and to make a loaf of bread not sour or soggy, is of more importance than satin in a cheek, which the fingers of diptheria may unravel, or the color of the hair, which one strong grip of fever may pull out.

BLOODY FRIDAY.

Full Details of the Somerville Riot.

A Negro Opens the Ball, Snapping a Pistol Twice in the Mayor's Face.

Mayor Hendon Shoots Him Dead.

Young Burton Mortally Wounds two Brothers and Disables a Third.

He Receives Thirteen Shots from the Negro Mob and Still Lives.

MEMPHIS, August 8.—Parties who arrived this morning from Somerville report all quiet, and that there had been no further fighting than reported in the dispatches last night, and that when the militia, which left here last night, arrived there they found great excitement, but no fighting. It seems the difficulty originated in a personal difficulty between Green Hendon, a white man, and Cash Warren, a leading negro politician, on the day of election, which was renewed yesterday, which led to the attempt to arrest Oscar Burton by Sheriff Reeves and his two brothers who are two leading Republicans and represented as determined men. Burton shot and killed Paul Reeves and was in turn shot and killed by Sheriff Reeves, whereupon fire was opened upon Sheriff Reeves and his brother from the windows and doors on the streets and they were shot down. The wildest excitement ensued and efforts were made to organize the negroes into armed bodies but as far as known at present, without success, and better counsels prevailed and quiet was restored. The militia from thise ity will return on the noon train.

A FULL STATEMENT OF THE TERRIBLE AFFAIR.

From Captain Harvey Mathes, editor of the Evening Leader, who returned from Somerville this evening, the following account of the riot, or rather what threatened to become so, at Somerville yesterday, is obtained:

The election of the day before had been hotly contested, and many negroes had attended the polls during the day heavily armed, and some had openly threatened to burn the town. During the day a prominent negro politician named Cash Warren had cursed and abused a young brother of Mayor Hendon, and on yesterday, encountering Mayor Hendon on the street, began to abuse him, and finally who then drew a pistol and shot him dead. Almost simultaneously, two or three shots were fired at the negro by the friends of the Mayor, who had collected there, among whom was Oscar Burton, a young man noted for being an excellent shot and brave, who was charged with firing at Warren, when he met his death, by the negroes, who had become very much incensed at the death of Warren and threatened to kill Burton, who about 11 o'clock appeared on the streets, armed with a double-barrelled shot-gun and pistols. Judge J. G. Reeves, Albert Reeves, the Sheriff elect, and another brother named Paul, attempted to arrest and disarm Burton, and owing to a report that a body of negroes were marching into town, Burton refused to be arrested, and they opened fire on him, wounding him severely in four different places. He returned the fire with a shot gun, mortally wounding Paul and Albert and then fell himself, but drew his pistol and shot J. G. Reeves in the shoulder, inflicting a dangerous but not fatal wound. The party of negroes who had congregated then opened fire on Burton, shooting him in a number of places, and one rushing up put a pistol to his back. In all, he received thirteen wounds, and if any prove fatal, whiah the doctors doubt, it will be the last one mentioned.

The excitement that followed was intense. Reports spread that negro runners had been sent to the country to stir up the various colored societies, and Memphis was telegraphed to for aid. Many negroes left town as was supposed to procure reinforcements, among whom was Williamson, who, in a speech during the canvass, said if the civil rights bill was not passed, he was captured last night, but escaped afterwards.

On the arrival of the military from Memphis, they found the citizens in arms and the town under patrol. Their arrival was hailed with great joy by the whites, and at the earnest request of the citizens, Capt. Duncan's Chickasaw Guards agreed to remain till Monday, while the remainder returned home this evening.

BREVITIES.

—Gold closed in New York at 9⅝.

—Cotton closed in New York at 17⅛ @17⅛; in Liverpool at 8¼.

—A popular writer hints that Americans and English are the only nations who keep clean finger nails.

—The colored people of Memphis lost $200,000 by the suspension of the Freedmen's Savings Bank. That is the way they are treated by their carpet-bag friends.

—Moulton has consulted six lawyers, including Ben Butler. With six legal opinions and one great mystery in his bosom he must feel extremely uncomfortable.

—A rag picker in New York has been ruined. He had just started in business as a dog-and-cat's meat man when the hydrophobia season set in and the slaughter of dogs began. His new wheelbarrow is now on his hands, and all the world is dark to him.

—Business is lively in Princeton. A dry goods merchant there, in a fit of somnambulism, arose from his couch, nearly cut the bed-quilt in two with his pocket scissors, and then asked his terrified wife if he could not show her something else.—Boston Post.

—John Mitchell has made a conspicuous start in Ireland. Cork is represented as "aflame with excitement" on his arrival, and five thousand people bore the welcoming torch. Presently Mr. Mitchell will proceed to stir up the Britis lion, when the cable intelligence will become interesting.

—Senator Morton has three sons—John M., Walter S. and Oliver T., The former is about 25 years of age, resides in California, and was recently married in Washington. The second, a lad of 15 years, is attending school at Chester, Pa. The youngest child is about 12, and is the constant companion of his father.—Inter-Ocean.

—The London Telegraph's report of a treaty having been made three months ago between the Emperor of Germany and Serrano affords a reasonable explanation of recent German movements concerning Spain. In the coming war with France, Spain might prove a valuable ally to Germany; and besides, she may want a king some day.

—According to the newspaper biographies of him, Theodore Tilton was born in twelve places in Massachusetts, seven places in Connecticut, two places in New Jersey, and all over New York. He was more born than to be borne with; yet, withal, to judge from "the great catalysis" it would do him no harm in the world to be born again.—Inter-Ocean.

—The Louisville Courier Journal talks to the point. If there is treason in it, let them make the most of it, says the Journal. Grant may be elected for a third term. There exists the machinery to do it; but his election will be the end of Republican government in America. We in the South know what revolution is. We are used to it. If the people of the North want to try it, they can sail in, and we hold ourselves ready to see that they get their bellyful of it. Aye, aye!

—Cremation may be all very well, but a French chemist has found a better way. By some process he has condensed the body of his wife into the space of an ordinary seal, and had her highly polished and set in a ring. He made a nice income by betting, with lapidaries and others, they could not tell the material of the set in three guesses, and, after pocketing the money, would burst into tears, and say: "It is my dear dead wife; I wear her on my finger to keep alive pleasant rememberances of her."

—Incident of the Chicago fire: "Those dear to her still remained in the building; was it any wonder that her eye lighted with an almost maniac glare, and her frantic movements showed all the torture she was enduring? It was too much—too much. Before the alarmed by-standers could stop her she had rushed desperately into the flaming house, animated by a heroic self-sacrifice. Let us rejoice that it was rewarded; she emerged unharmed, carrying in her noble arms the innocent creatures she had saved—four cats howling and clawing like mad."

—The Commissioners of the Freedman's Bank are not having as smooth a time as they anticipated. Not many days ago they directed the sub-agencies in all the States to transmit what funds they had on hand to the parent bank here, with a view to accumulate the assets and declare a pro rata dividend. The responses come in slowly. In many instances the commissioners have been informed that the depositors in the cities where the sub-agencies are located are unwilling that the funds should be sent to Washington. This new trouble only adds to the complications of the suspended bank, and may delay not only dividends, but an actual knowledge of the condition of the institution for many weeks to come.

THE riot, of which we gave an account in yesterday afternoon's paper, which may be found on the first page, was ended, as will be seen in the telegrams.

THEY have begun to howl. The telegraph tells of Supervisor Perry, of North Carolini, who organized the Republican party of that State several years ago. He says that the civil rights bill slayed 'em. And it will slay some more.

THE civil rights bill is an astonisher. Here we have been all quaking in our boots and awful mad by turns, while that bill is sending the Radicals to—well, you know the news from Tennessee and the Old North State. The civil rights bill is not so very civil after all—at least, so will Freeman, Whitely, et id omne genus think when the election in Georgia is over.

THE types are tough on us sometimes. They made us speak the other day, in a dignified editorial, of a "critter," for "creature," and now they want to inundate Columbus, Ga., with a deluge of young men in search of the "fair Georgian" about to become immensely wealthy, when the reading should have been a "few Georgians." Some difference there!

MR. M. C. EDWARDS has been nominated for the Legislature by the Democratic Convention of Randolph county. In a neat reply to the committee, Messrs. T. I. Ball, J. L. Yarbrough, R. V. Gay and Wm. Crawford, informing him of his nomination, he pledges "faithfulness of purpose, promptness of action, and constancy to the interests of his constituents." Good.

Appointment of a State Geologist.

George Little, Professor, was appointed State Geologist, yesterday, by Gov. Smith, under an act of the last Legislature,—Dr. Carlton's bill—upon suggestion of Prof. Broun, President of the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts.

Professor Little has been Assistant State Geologist of Mississippi for several years, associated with Prof. Hylgard now of the University of Michigan. He has occupied for some ten years a chair in the University of Mississippi, and was formerly an honored Professor of Oakand College in that State. He has had long experience as an instructor. He is a graduate of distinction of the University of Alabama, and holds also a diploma of graduation in the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Gottingin, in Germany, where he spent two years in study. He is a classical scholar of fine attainment; a fine mathematician; an adept in National Science, and speaks the German language as well as the French and Italian.

Dr. Little's previous experience will render unnecessary a large amount of preliminary, tentative exploration, which is the first necessity with any one, no matter how competent otherwise, to whom the field is entirely new, and which involves at least a year's loss of time and expense.

He is said to be of an eminently practical turn of mind; of clear-sightedness and sound judgment, both of men and things; possessed of great constructive, ability and administrative talent; is an excellent organizer, and is faithful, energetic and indefatigable in his official duties.

He spent a large part of the period of the war in North Georgia and Macon, in the laboratory; and in private life is well known in Georgia as a christian gentleman and a genial companion.

Georgia and Florida are the only two States that have not had "a geological, mineralogical and physical survey," as is contemplated in the appointment. The field is very inviting to a scientific man.

Dr. Little will enter upon the discharge of the duties of his office as soon as he arrives in this city, which will be at an early day.

The Professor Elect of the Chair of Belle Lettres in the State University.

Rev. Dr. E. W. Speer, who has just been elected to the chair of Belle Lettres in the State University, was raised in Monroe county, Georgia. He is a son of Rev. Alexander Speer, D. D. L. L. D. of Abbeville District, South Carolina, an eminent lawyer and politician, and a man of wealth. In 1832 or 33 Dr. Alexander Speer, being a strong union man, and intense excitement prevailing in South Carolina on the subject of nullification, he left the State and came to Elbert county, where he settled. From Elbert Dr. Speer removed with his family to Monroe county. The mother of Dr. Eustace W. Speer belonged to the Middleton family so illustrious in the history of South Carolina.

Dr. Speer is, we believe, about fifty years of age. He entered the ministry of the Methodist Church soon after reaching his majority, and rose rapidly in the Conference. While unambitious about place, he has often been called to places of honor. He has been elected a member of the General Conference repeatedly. He is a man of eminent piety and practical sense; of modest mien and high bred gentility; is a fine scholar, well-read, a deep thinker and great orator, and withal a man of great mental power. He is now pastor of the Methodist Church of this city. The Board of Trustees made an excellent selection.

Red-Hot.

The Radical candidate in the Second Congressional District has issued an address, in which he defends his vote for the civil rights bill, and asserts his purpose to stand up to it. We have no need to notice him here, however. The press of his section are going for him in red-hot style, as may be seen from the following, clipped from the Valdosta Times:

"Let it be known that Dick Whiteley has said that he voted for the civil rights bill, and was proud of it.

Let it be known that he endeavored to put through an election bill, which, if it had become a law, would have taken the polls out of the hands of the lawful freeholders of the State, and they would have been controlled and manipulated entirely by scallawags and carpet baggers.

Let it be known that he voted for the civil rights bill to insure his renomination, and the infamous election bill to secure his re-election.

Let it be known that during his long stay in Congress, he did nothing for the white people of his District. His every act but aroused their contempt.

Let it be known that he is a deserter from his race, and a libel upon the white blood in his veins.

Let be known that white men cannot stand him any longer, and that his doom is sealed, signed and delivered.

Moulton.

Upon this man the eyes of the American people have been concentrating their gaze for a week or two past. It seemed as if he alone could settle the matter of Beecher's guilt. He appeared to avoid investigation, but at last he comes before the committee. His full statement, it is stated, will be published to-day. It ought to reach Atlanta in time for the afternoon CONSTITUTION, as it is given to the New York press at 11 o'clock this morning. We are anxious to see his testimony.

Military Notes.

The following named officers of the "James Rifles" of Fayett countye were commissioned yesterday: John G. Lister, Captain; W. M. Cook 1st Lieut., John Martin and T. D. Bell 2d Lieut.,

F. M. King was commissioned, yesterday, Capt. of the "Southern Rights Guards" vice Joseph Palmer resigned; also to G. C. Nunn as 2d Lieut. to fill the ensuring vacancy; and B. J. G. Davis as 1st Lieut., vice P. B. D. H. Culler resigned.

MOULTON understands it. We have been muddled. We couldn't see the way out, but Moulton does. He says that "he had thus far endeavored to maintain peace between Beecher and Tilton, and should continue to do so, and by the removal of misunderstanding and the intelligent realization of self interest, he should never despair of maintaining or renewing peace."

The "removal of misunderstanding" and the "intelligent realization of self interest." Pooh! how simple not, to have seen it at first. Especially as the misunderstanding is on so trivial a matter as the appropriation of one man's wife by another man.

The Elections.

North Carolina has been gloriously redeemed. The latest returns show that two Congressmen have been gained, and that ex-Gov. Vance has been elected despite independent candidacy against him. The whole State is ablaze with enthusiasm.

Tennessee is alike full of rejoicing. The Knoxville Herald exclaims: "Lo, the Avalanche!" It declares that the result of the election is simply one of those mighty upheavals of the people which baffle all calculation, and overwhelm all resistance. We hope to give the full result in this afternoon's edition of THE CONSTITUTION.

Political Notes.

General Casey, a brother-in-law of General Grant, is a prominent candidate for United States Senator from Louisiana.

Mr. George C. Gorham, Secretary of the United States Senate, appears in California politics now as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor.

The Graphic says that Mr. Cushing does not feel at home in Madrid. The poor man cannot find work enough for more than three men to do, and this he performs before breakfast.

The Democratic and Conservative Executive Committee of Alabama, appointed by the late Convention, have selected Capt. Walter L. Bragg as chairman, with headquarters at Montgomery.

A plan is agitated to nominate ex-Gov. John T. Hoffman for Representative in Congress from the Albany (N. Y.) district. Mr. Hoffman is to return from Europe on the first of October, and take up his residence in Albany.

The Rev. J. Sella Martin, a notorious radical negro politician, has been appointed a special agent of the Treasury Department, and assigned to duty in the State of Mississippi. The dark color of his skin secured him the appointment.

Senator Stewart, of Navada, announces that he is not a candidate for reelection, and that State, which never saw him oftener than once in four or five years, does not refuse to be comforted on the prospect of his permanent absence. He will practice law in Washington.

Observe the contrast! Kentucky as a result of Democratic rule is free from debt, and has a surplus in her Treasury; North Carolina cursed by the sway of Radicalism groans beneath a load of debt, which she is unable to pay, and so suffers in reputation, as well as in material interests.—Rel. News.

On the night of the 27th the theater in Montgomery, Ala., was filled from top to bottom. The occasion was the presentation of a banner to the Clanton Democratic and Conservative Club. Mrs. J. H. Clanton, the widow of the dead hero, donated the banner, and her little boy, Jemmie, presented it in a neat little speech, after being introduced to the audiance by Mr. F. Titcomb. Captain Bragg received the banner in behalf of the club with some graceful remarks.

To talk to any sane man from South Carolina or Louisiana of there being any hope in the future from any possible "drift" for Grant would be nonsense. If the South is to be carried for a third term it must be by the votes of the negroes and the mercenary whites who know no traditions of the Republic, and would not regard them if they did. There can be no question but that the whole Conservative South will be united in support of the Democratic candidate in 1876.—Baltimore Gazette, (Dem.)

In South Carolina the work of organizing subordinate tax unions is going forward rapidly. The Charleston News and Courier of the 1st says:

"The tax payers in the various counties are coming forward promptly and enrolling themselves. In Fairfield a tax union has been formed in every township in the county. The other counties are following the example set them by Fairfield, and by the first of September the tax payers of the State will be able to present a united front to the organized band of public plunders who have for the past six years been squandering the people's money.

Send the Delegates Untrammeled.

[Bainbridge Democrat.]

The Congressional Convention of the Democratic Party will meet in Albany on the 20th instant. The delegates to that meeting have a great work to perform; upon them, therefore, devolves no trival responsibility. If they should select an incompetent standard-bearer, and he should be defeated, the odium of that defeat would rest with said delegates.

In the nomination there must be no favoritism. The Convention is assembled for the general good, and for no particular man's benefit. Patriotism, and the vital issues before the country in this campaign, should forbid "wire-pulling" and "log rolling." The claims of one county, or another county should not be better this or that county. Local lines should be erased, local prejudices should be allayed, and local favorites forgotten.

Every element at our command should be blended together as one will, one mind, one arm, opposed to Radicalism, the common enemy. There must be patriotism enlisted which is willing to sacrifice all personal ends for the good of all.

Therefore, we urge that the Delegates to the Convention be sent untrammeled; and they be instructed to look after the general weal. If all things were equal—both parties alike honest, intelligent, and patriotic, working for the same end—the good of our common country; then we might, with impunity, instruct our Delegates to vote for a certain candidate. But, when, instead of an intelligent political party, we are contending against a horde of barbarian ignorance, aided, abetted, and led on by cunning thieves and knaves, who have ventured into the light on the disaster of our country; villians who would commit any crime in the decalogue if it gave them place and power—we say, that when such are the elements that compose the rabble against whom we are to plan a champaign, we cannot afford to indulge in the child's play of instructing delegates to vote for local favorites.

The one issue—the Civil Rights Bill—before the people in this campaign, more clearly concerns the white citizens of the South than any one measure since the foundation of the government. That odious measure is designed to revolutionize and destroy a state of society that has commanded the admiration and respect of the world. * * * Send your Delegates untrammeled, and pray the help of God on their deliberations.

Coming Home to Roost.

The following letter has just been received, having been directed to the Young Men's Christian Association:

"DALLAS, TEXAS, July 17, 1874.

GENTS: It is with much regret that I read in the papers that Chicago has again been partly burned, but the ways of Providence are mysterious and past finding out. I herewith enclose you $100, part of the $500 you sent to the New Orleans yellow fever sufferers during the year 1867. Please inform me who's cow kicked the lamp over this time; I am very anxious to donate one sack of oat to her. May God continue to shower his blessings upon you, for whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth.

Yours respectfully,
O. S. WILLIAMSON."

Accompanying this epistle were two notes, bearing the signatures of the President and Treasurer of the lamented Confederate States. These notes were of the issue of 1864.—Chicago Times.

Uxoricide.

[By Telegraph to Constitution.]

NEW YORK, August 10.—John Elwell, carpenter at Green Point, stabbed his wife Charlotta six times with a large clasp knife, inflicting probably fatal wounds. Jealousy supposed to be the cause. Elwell has been arrested.

DADE COUNTY.

Meeting of the Democratic Committee.

In convention assembled at Trenton the voters of the county of Dade, and upon motion of Col. R. H. Tatum, Col. Cureton was named and unanimously elected to a permanent presidency.

Upon motion of Capt. E. T. Rogers, A. L. Howard was made secretary.

Upon motion of Dr. T. J. Lumpkin, a committee of seven was appointed by the chairman to prepare business for the convention with instructions to select delegates to represent the Democracy of Dade county in the district convention to be held at Calhoun.

Whereupon, Dr. T. J. Lumpkin was appointed chairman, associated with S. C. Hale, Dr. W. E. Brock, Capt. E. T. Rogers, Leroy Sutton, J. A. Case, Dr. K. H. Davis.

During the absence of the committee Col. R. H. Tatum delivered an address. His suggestions were received with no common unanimity, and his exposition of the submission of convicts to the grade of artistical and mechanical labor to be at once and forever antagonistic to the wholesome condition to all and every community. He furthermore decried and condemned the economy and justice of exempting from taxation three, four and five hundred thousand dollars—for instance in the county of Dade.

The committee on business, in making their report offer the following:

We, the committee, appointed by the Chair to prepare business for the convention, would respectfully suggest the names of W. U. Jacoway and T. J. Lumpkin as suitable gentlemen to represent the Democracy of Dade county in the district convention to be held in Calhoun to nominate a candidate to represent this district in the next United States Congress, and J. G. Pace and David E. Tatum as alternates.

We would respectfully recommend to this convention to send our delegates to said district convention untrammeled, promising to cheerfully support the nominee of said convention.

T. J. LUMPKIN, Chairman.
JAS. A. CASE, Secretary.

Upon motion of Capt. Henry Parker, the report of the committee was unanimously adopted.

Upon motion of Col, R. H. Tatum it was resolved that an executive committee of five be appointed by the chair, of and for the Democracy of Dade, and also a secretary. The chair appointed Col. R. H. Tatum, Dr. K. H. Davis, Leroy Sutton, A. M. Fowler and Dr. W. E. Brock, (Col. Tatum as chairman,) Capt. Henry Baker was appointed secretary.

Upon a general call, Col. J. W. Cureton addressed the convention. He analyzed and discussed at length the chief and earnest question of convict labor being performed. His review of this matter was complete, and denouncing certain reports concerning his course while in the legislature, in this and other respects, as false. He justified his course in support of exemption from taxation of iron manufactories in the State of Georgia.

Upon motion of Col. Tatum,

Resolved, That the proceedings of this convention be published in THE WEEKLY CONSTITUTION, at Atlanta, with the request to the Seventh Congressional District papers to copy the same.

Upon motion of Capt. E. T. Rogers the convention adjourned sine die.

JAS. W. CURETON, President.
A. L. HOWARD, Secretary.

Political.

(Newnan Herald.)

It is gratifying to observe the growing tendency of the masses of tue Democratic party to think and act for themselves in the matter of selecting candidates for office. The people are at last arousing themselves to the knowledge of the fact that those who are most anxious to fill the offices, are not always the best suited for the position they seek. It is no uncommon thing now for political aspirants to canvass whole counties, and even whole Districts, in their own interest, prior to the nominating conventions. They endeavor to "fix up" the primary meetings so that delegates will be sent to the conventions favorable to their nomination. * * * * *

We cannot but admire that portion of the address of the Democratic Executive Committee of the State, which advises that this mode of seeking office shall cease, and that the delegates sent to the nominating convention shall go untrammeled, free to support the best man that may be presented for their votes. And in this connection, Col. R. A. Alston, a candidate for Congress from the Fifth District, has written a very manly and sensible letter in which he takes strong ground against the system of canvassing heretofore in vogue in the Democratic party, and believes in leaving it to the people, entirely uninfluenced by the appeals of the respective aspirants, to determine who is the fittest man to represent them. Col. Alston, says he "has not asked a man to vote for him in the convention, and shall not; but will quietly pursue his business as usual up to the time of the convention and will trust the people to put the standard in the hands of the right man. Then he will take the field actively in support of the nominee, whether it be himself or another. In his own county, he will advise that the delegates shall be sent absolutely untrammeled only insisting that they shall be intelligent men." This has the ring of the true metal. Would that we had more of such men in every district and in every county in the State. Our officers then, both State and Federal, would be filled by men who are the choice of the people, who are elected because of their meritorious qualifications and peculiar fitness for the office, and not because of their "shrewdness in manipulating the few who are gathered togerther at the primary meetings so as to get delegates instructed to go for them first, last and all the time." Such men are not representative men.—Let an untrammeled convention call whom they my desire, and not have an army of anxious aspirants obtruding themselves upon their deliberations.

An Abortionist Arrested—Disgusting Revelations.

[By Telegraph to the Constitution.]

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 10.—Madame Fortineyer, midwife, was arrested yesterday on charge of procuring abortion. The dead body of a young mulatto girl, named Lena Miller, was found in her house, and another young woman, whose name is unknown, was found lying very sick and in great pain. One of the infants was also found in the house, and the partially burned bones of another were discovered in the stove. It is said that Madame Fortineyer has practiced abortion several years, and that quite a number of infants have been "cremated" by her. It is reported that several highly respectable persons in the city are involved in the matter. The coroner will hold an inquest on the body of Lena Miller and the remains of the infants today.

A WRETCHED LIFE.

From Luxury and Virtue to Vice and Poverty—A Western Belle Ending Her Days in a New Orleans Concert Hall.

(New Orleans Times.

"'Tis true, 'tis pity, and pity 'tis, 'tis true."

How miserable would be the lives of fond parents could they only rend asunder the mysterious veil that conceals the future, and obtain but a momentary glimpse of the fate in store for their gradual ascent of the mountain of evil, see them standing on the brink of the crime stained precipice, and finally take the fatal plunge into the

ABYSS OF INFAMY.

In the flourishing little town of V——, in Indiana, was born of parents in affluent circumstances, a daughter whose surpassing beauty excited the admiration of all who saw her, and like a sun kissed bud when Millie reached her sixteenth year her beauty, talents and wit fairly electrified her friends and companions.

Millie's parents at about this time visited the National Capital, taking with them their idol, and the pride of the village of V——. Thus from the quiet and repose of a small town Millie was hurled unprepared into the galeties of LIFE IN WASHINGTON.

Millie's beauty and freshness, her naive, accomplishments, and withal, her father's wealth, soon surrounded her with a large coterie of admirers, who vied with each other in pouring seductive flattery into her unaccustomed ear.

Her parents becoming alarmed at the persistency of her suitors and the whirl of gaicty that occupied all of her attention, and fearing the result, returned to their quiet home sooner than they had intended.

As was to be expected, Millie fell in love with one of her admirers, who was essentially a man of the world, an unprincipled,

PENNILESS ADVENTURER.

He followed her as soon as decorum would permit, was received with a hearty welcome by her father and mother, and domiciled at their residence.

Representing himself as a Louisiana sugar planter, he talked of his broad acres, his negroes and his parentage. But the keen paternal eye was not thus to be deceived, and when the pretended sugar planter proposed for Millie's hand he met with a firm, decided refusal. By artful representations the unscrupulous man persuaded Millie to leave the protecting shelter of her father's roof and elope with him. Alas, she fell, a too ready victim to his wiles, and in her innocence and guilelessness severed the ties of a lifetime and heedlessly rushed into the

with a comparative stranger.

Words are inadequate to convey the grief of her parents upon learning of her flight, nor her agony when one morning in the city of St. Louis she awoke to the realization that the man she loved had deserted her, stolen her jewels, and left her penniless among strangers. Millie's pride forbade her returning to her native town to face the scorn and sneers of her former companions—to be an object of compassion or sympathy.

Of course, her destitution was soon noised abroad, and when it reached the ear of a proprietor, he advised within himself, and concluded to employ her, no matter if she did not possess any qualifications whatever; a pretty face and figure was all that was necessary for "wine-room talent." Millie seized his proposition with avidity, as a loophole of escape, and the next night she shone resplendent in ballet costume on a concert hall stage.

The manager was certainly a good physiognomist as Millie proved the "card" he predicted. Beautiful as the hours, Millie's first appearance caused a murmur of admiration to involuntarily escape from the drunken habitues of the den of voice, but when her lute-like voice, at first faintly heard above the noise of clinking glasses, in the song of pathos, "Home, Sweet Home," gradually penetrated their sadden hearts, she branched off into "Piccadilly," "Rackerty Jack" and "I'm the chap that's nobody," earning thunders of applause by her skillful change from grave to gay.

From St. Louis, Millie went to Pensacola still pursuing her avocation, from thence to New Orleans. Meeting with reverses in this city, she sought and obtained an engagement at one of the lowest of our low concert dives.

MILLIE'S LAST EXPLOIT

in this city came very near earning for her a home, for a time, at the expense of the city.

It appears, while plying her vocation and admirers with wine, a persistent drover, with the equivalent of a hundred cattle in his pocket, let the rosy god overcome his prudence, and in a few short hours he was a depleted exchequer. Upon his bankrupt state being discovered he was left alone in his glory, which impoliteness the drover resented by "squealing"—that is, calling for the police, and having the house pulled, the proprietors arrested as accessories and Millie as principal; and as the sum exceeded the jurisdiction of a recorder's court, it was sent before one of the higher tribunals.

THE DAY OF TRIAL

arrived and Millie was in the court room closely veiled, but when she revealed her face in all its loveliness the hearts of the twelve pater familias straightway softened, but when she cast her pleading eyes, full of pretended innocence and modesty, upon them, their look of stern determination gave way to one of indignation at the unfeeling man who would dare accuse her of the theft. Millie was acquitted. After this exploit she retired from the stage, and now diverts herself to "jerking beer" in one of our city saloons.

The Ross Abduction.

(By Telegraph to The Constitution.)

PHILADELPHIA, August 10.—The private dispatches to the friend of Charlie Ross from Bennington, Vt from the chief of police, states the facts of the arrest of the woman having the child resembling Charlie, and that she gives evasive answers. Another dispatch requests an accurate description of the missing child, a third but not signed by the chief of police says that the child on being questioned said, my name is Charlie Ross, but mamma says I must not tell any one.

BENNINGTON, VT., August 10.—Mrs. Fred Hamilton, formerly Mary Flynn, of Bennington, has been arrested with a child in her possession corresponding with the description given of Charlie Ross. He has the same colored hair and eyes, his hair has been cut, is about same age, talks plain, says his name is Charlie, and that he had a nice home once. It is a singular coincidence, but the circumstances connected with the case make it improbable that he is the lost child. Fred Hamilton is in the employ of P. T. Barnum's show, now at Boston, and is in correspondence with his wife. She says the child came from New York. Officers await further description of the boy from Philadelphia.

Accidents.

MAUCH CHUNK, PA., August 10.—Mr. James Eagan, a wealthy gentleman of New York, was driving in a buggy in east Mauch Chunk, Saturday evening, accompanied by Charlie Booth, son of the proprietor of the Mansion House. While crossing a bridge over the Lehigh river, took fright at some preparations for repairs of the bridge, and backed to the parapet, throwing both of them out. Mr. Eagan fell a distance of thirty or forty feet on the tow path and was instantly killed. Booth fell into the canal and escaped without serious injury. The horse clung to the parapet and was saved.

MOULTON'S VIEWS.

He Sustains Tilton's Statement—Revelations of the Great Mystery—Rumors and Surmises, Etc.

(By Telegraph to The Constitution.)

BROOKLYN, N. Y., August 10.—Gen. Tracy states regarding his rumored withdrawal as Beecher's counsel that he is still engaged in the case. As he had acted in the early stage of the case as counsel for Moulton, and professional etiquette would not permit his appearing before the committee and cross-examine Moulton. The other counsel will only take his place so far as Moulton is concerned. The statement to be presented this evening by Moulton will most probably be read in the morning papers, provided Moulton, Beecher and Tilton are agreeable.

Judge Morris, counsel for Tilton, in the crim con suit against Beecher, states that he has a large mass of documentary evidence which he is getting in shape rapidly.

BROOKLYN, August 10.—The session of the investigating committee this evening was strictly private, like all former meetings.

District Attorney Winslow, in reply to anxious inquiries by members of the press regarding Moulton's statement, said "the developments will come in good time, when you can all have them."

Moulton, Tilton and Butler have been together in Moulton's house to-day, but their interview cannot be learned. It has been stated that Butler is here in connection with the Jayne custom-house suit, in which $200,000 are involved, and in which Moulton's firm, Woodruff, Robinson & Co., are concerned, and Beecher won't be examined by the committee until to-morrow. The Eagle publishes a letter from Geo. H. Beecher in which he explains the circumstances connected with Mrs. Hooper's alleged threats of exposure. She was laboring under violent mental excitement at the time she threatened to invade his pulpit, she did not pretend to have any other evidence than the statements of Woodhull, Stanton and Authony. She desired Beecher would place himself himself at the head of the new woman's ment, and she and others would uphold him. Beecher talked the matter over with her and soothed her considerably. He made no denial of her charges for the reason that it would have involved an explanation of matters he did not care to confide to her.

Ben Butler, Thos. Kinseller and B. Tracy called on Moulton this morning What for no one knows. Beecher is in town, at his home. Tracy says he will not cross-examine Moulton, as he is a client of his. Sherman says Beecher's statement is all ready and will be given to the committee to-morrow.

NEW YORK, August 10.—The Brooklyn Argus says the statement submitted by Moulton covers more than twice the number of pages of manuscript used by Tilton in his sworn statement. Moulton rests the case almost entirely on documentary evidence, which had been voluntarily placed in his possession by Beecher, Tilton, Mrs. Tilton, Mrs. Morse, Mrs. Tilton's mother and other persons.

Moulton declares with repeated and earnest assurances, that he has preserved his friendly relations with all the parties to the case during a long period, covered by documents in his possession, and that he has sincerely decided to effect a reconciliation between Tilton and Beecher. When the attacks on Tilton were fully made public by Beecher's friends, Moulton felt compelled to come to the support of Tilton, and approved of the course taken by Tilton in self-defense. Moulton finds it necessary to recur to the beginning of the controversy, while the difficulty having originated from differences between Henry C. Bowen and Tilton. He gives a history of Tilton's serious complications with Bowen, and step by step traces the progress of breach between them, leading up to the final complications between Tilton and Beecher, out of which grew the tripartite covenant. Moulton makes incidental allusions to some of the important interviews mentioned by Frank B. Carpenter, especially those which related to Bowen's connection with the case. Moulton's narrative comes in due couse to the scenes between himself and Beecher in the house of the latter, the letter written by Mrs. Tilton at the request of her husband and Beecher, the writing of Beecher's apology, the whole text of which has already been made public, and the remarkable letter in which Beecher describes himself as living on sharp and rugged edge of remorse fear and despair, the last letter has remained in custody of Moulton from the day it was written to the present time. A small portion of it included in Mr. Tilton's sworn statement was all that was placed by Moulton at Mr. Tilton's disposal. The whole letter occupies two whole pages of foolscap paper, and the intensity of expression revealed in the extract already published is its prevalent tone throughout. All letters from Beecher, from which quotations were made in Mr. Tilton's statement have been laid in full, by Mr. Moulton, before the committee. It is established by Moulton's evidence that the letter of apology, written by Mr. Beecher on the evening of January 1, 1871, was, as has already been intimated, written by Moulton at Beecher's dictation, and Beecher himself wrote the last line and appended his signature. The statements made by Mrs. Tilton in her published denial, and in her cross examination before the committee, and are not sustained by Moulton's evidence. He states that Mrs. Tilton communicated with him freely and confidentially in regard to this communication of this and the scanda', regarding him as a like friend of herself, her husband and Mr. Beecher. Mrs. Morse also made a confident of Mr. Moulton, and deposited with him some important letters bearing on this case. These letters together with others written to Mr. Tilton go far towards strengthening his position. It is now understood that the statement revised by Mr. Moulton, will be furnished to the press for publication about noon to-morrow.

NEW YORK, August 10.—The Beecher Tilton committee of investigation met this afternoon. Mr. Moulton did not make his appearance for at least an hour after the committee had assembled.

The side-walk in front of the house was blocked up with reporters and crowds of curious spectators anxious to obtain, if possible, a glimpse of thh mutual friend Moulton who, when taking his departure after a session of about two hours and half the committee adjourned. The members on coming down the steps were surrounded by other members of the press and they stated that they had bound themselves to secrecy, and would not make statements to the public until they had held consultation. Moulton said he would give copies of his statement to the press at 11 o'clock to-morrow. The committee will hold its next session to-morrow night.

Suffering Farmers in the West.

[By Telegraph to the Constitution.]

WASHINGTON, August 10.—Capt. Munson, commanding Camp Ruggles, in a communication dated July 31st, and received at the War Department to-day, states that the grasshoppers have destroyed almost the entire crop of corn, oats and potatoes. He suggests that farmers who have suffered the loss be employed in building the post, or in hauling material for it. He thinks it would prevent much suffering during the coming winter. Gen. Ord in forwarding Capt. Munson's report says that the buildings at the post can be erected by civilians. Work is offered to those farmers who are now quite destitute, and will result in the interest of the country by keeping them in it. The report is forwarded from Gen. Sheridan to the General of the army, whose attention is invited to the recommendation of Capt. Munson.

Senator Hitchcock, by letter to Gen. Ord, asks that money for building the post be sent among the sufferers in that vicinity. He says it will save great suffering.

MIXED SCHOOLS.

A Pretty Prospect for Washington City.

[By Telegraph to the Constitution.]

WASHINGTON, August 10.—The new board of public school trustees recently appointed by the district commission met to-night. George T. McClellan, white, was elected president, and J. H. Brooks, colored, secretary.

H. Johnson, colored, submitted a resolution for a revision of the rules and discipline of all district schools.

S. G. Brown, colored, offered a resolution to divide the District of Columbia into fifteen school districts—one for each trustee, which would give to each trustee, white and colored, charge over both the white and colored schools. The resolutions were referred to a committee of which a colored man is the chairman, and a majority of such committee are in favor of both resolutions.

One member of the committee, Geo W. Dyer, white, declared himself in favor of mixed schools of the twenty-five new, ten are white and fifteen colored. There was no dissent expressed from Dyer's declaration for mixed schools.

CIVIL RIGHTS DID IT.

The Radical Howl Over the Loss of North Carolina.

B[y Telegraph to the Constitution.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The Herald to-day contains the following, dated 9th inst: Supervisor Perry, of North Carolnia, arrived here this morning, en route for Maine. He says the civil rights bill is what killed the Republican party in North Carolina. He concedes a Democratic majority of 10,000. Two years ago this official was leader of the Radical party in North Carolina, and organized the State so as to secure a Republican majority to effect the Presidential campaign in 1872. The sudden change bewilders him, and he thinks it would have been better if Congress had disposed of the civil rights measure. So great a victory on the part of the Democrats, he fears, will encourage illicit distilleries, and he will ask that military posts be established in parts of the State where it has been suppressed.

Department News.

[By Telegraph to the Constitution.]

WASHINGTON, August 10.—It is stated on the authority of a prominent post-office official that the contractors for furnishing postal cards have never yet furnished a card equal in quality of paper to the requirement of the contract; and although the fact is well known the department takes no means to enforce the contractors to a compliance with the contract, which is for four years, with three to run To allow the present company to furnish an inferior card is thought an injustice to the other companies who bid for the contract. The subject will remain in abeyance until the arrival of the Postmaster General.

The Postoffice Department has ordered a third trip per week on the mail route from Napa City to Knoxville, California; also a third trip on the route from San Louis to Cambrica, California.

At its last session Congress ordered the manufacture of a medal of reward for the rescue of the Metas; also one to be presented to the persons employed at the life-saving stations who might hereafter risk their lives in rendering services to vessels and persons in danger of shipwreck. The director of the mint having charge of the construction of the medals has lately issued a circular to artists to compete for designs for the same, offering $250 reward for each design accepted. The latest date at which such designs can be submitted is September 1st.

The Pittsburgh Prize Fight.

[By Telegraph to The Constitution.]

PITTSBURGH, August 10.—A large crowd arrived here to-day from Chicago, St. Louis and New York to witness the prize-fight between Edwards of New York and Sam Collyer of Baltimore. Betting to-day is even. St. Louis, Cincinnati and Baltimore men back Collyer, while Philadelphia and New York men bet heavily on Edwards.

It is probable that fresh arrangements will have to be made for carrying the pugilists and the crowd to the grounds, as the river is too shallow for boats to carry any extra crowd. Edwards weighs one hundred and thirty-one, and Collyer one hundred and thirty-two pounds.

Collyer remains at Mekus Rock, five miles from the city. Edwards stops with his trainers at Pord's. The train leaving New York at 5:30 p.m., yesterday, brought a big crowd of New York and Philadelphia sports. Among them was William Borst, Mike Costello, Johnny Dwyer, Harry Hilken, Joe Coburn, Tom Allen, John Haveron and Jack Loyney

"We learn on authority that Charles C. Souder, late agent of the Howe Sewing Machine Company in this city, has commenced suit for libel against that company, laying his damages at $100,000. ## A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

Horrible Case of Rape and Murder --The Negro Fiend Meets Prompt and Stern Punishment.

The Knoxville Press and Herald gives the particulars of the fiendish outrage reported briefly a day or two since in the CONSTITUTION'S telegraphic column:

A shocking and terrible tragedy was that which is now causing the most intense excitement throughout upper East Tennessee. By letters and telegrams from the scene, we collate the following narration of the affair:

Last Sunday afternoon, the 2d inst., an orphan white girl, thirteen years old, named Alice Moody, living with her grandmother, about five miles from Johnson's City, Washington county, started alone to go to her uncle's, two miles distant. It is known that she was met in the road by a coal-black negro about nineteen years old, named James Worley, and forced by him from the road into the woods, where he violated her person, and after committing the hellish deed, cut his victim's throat from ear to ear!

The grandmother of the murdered girl supposed that she had reached her uncle's, and had no suspicion of the terrible tragedy. The uncle, not knowing of her departure from the grandmother's was also unsuspicious of the sad fate of his young niece. On Friday morning the grandmother first learned that the girl had not reached her uncle's house, and no being able to learn of her at any of the neighbor's houses, she became alarmed. Search was hurriedly instituted, and the body of the missing girl found where the negro wretch had committed the foul murder. Suspicion was directed to the negro, James Worley, and he was found and arrested. Blood was found on his clothes, and he was accused of the crime, and after at first denying it, confessed his horrid guilt.

The excitement that followed was intense and indescribable. The people gathered from all directions, and there was depicted on every face a stern and fixed determination to exact instant justice and severe penalty—no less than the life of the demoniacal wretch.

The negroes in the vicinity were also fearfully exasperated, and demanded that Worley be given up to them that they might burn him! This, of course, was refused. That night, in some way unknown to the officers of the law, the prisoner was spirited away, taken to the scene of his horrid crimes—which is in Carter county—and a rope placed around his neck. The wretch, it is said, again confessed his crime, and with an oath defied the crowd. In a few minutes afterwards the negro was dangling from a limb of the tree beneath which his hellish crime had been committed, and nine pistol balls were instantly fired into him. The carcass was left hanging for the vultures to feed upon and the crowd dispersed.

A dispatch received by us from Jonesboro, last night, announces that the negro's body was found by the physicians of Jonesboro, who went out for it, and taken to Jonesboro last evening.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞Many who are suffering from the effects of the warm weather and are debilitated, are advised by physicians to take moderate amounts of whisky two or three times during the day. In a little while those who adopt this advice frequently increase the number of "drinks," and in time become confirmed inebriates. A beverage which will not create thirst for intoxicating liquors, and which is intended especially for the benefit of debilitated persons, whether at home or abroad, is Dr. Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic. Containing the juices of many medicinal herbs, this preparation does not create an appetite for the intoxicating cup. The nourishing and the life-supporting properties of many valuable natural productions contained in it and well known to medical men have a most strengthening influence. A single bottle of the Tonic will demonstrate its valuable qualities. For debility arising from sickness, over exertion or from any cause whatever, a wine-glassful of Sea Weed Tonic taken after meals will strengthen the stomach and create an appetite for wholesome food. To all who are about leaving their homes, we desire to say that the excellent effects of Dr. Schenck's seasonable remedies, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills, are particularly evident when taken by those who are injuriously affected by a change of water and diet. No person should leave home without taking a supply of these safeguards along. For sale by all Druggists. aug2—deodlm

THE RETURN TO LEGARE.

I came to the place where my childhood had dwelt,
To the hearth where in early devotion I knelt.
The fern and the bramble grew wild in the hall,
And the long grass of summer had on the wall.
—, the roses were dead.
The roof tree was scared from the desolate ac,
And I breathed in the home of my boyhood alone.

That moment is past, but it left on my heart
A remembrance of sadness which will not depart.
I have wandered afar since that sorrowful day,
I have wept with the mournful, and laughed with the gay.

I have lived with the stranger, and drank of the rills
Which go warbling their music on loftier hills;
But I never forget in rejoicing or care
That mouldering hearth, or those hills of Legare.

Yet droop not my spirit, nor hopelessly mourn
Over ills which the best or the wisest have born,
Though the greetings of love, and the voices of mirth
May forever be hushed in homesteads of earth.

Though the dreams and the dwellings of childhood decay,
And the friends whom we cherish go hasting away.
No young hopes are scattered, no heart-strings are riven,
No partings are known in the households of Heaven.

DR. CALHOUN'S LIVER PILLS.

I AM engaged in the manufacture of the Celebrated Family Medicine, known as the Calhoun Liver and Anti-Bilious Pills, under the supervision and assistance of Dr. Calhoun himself. This Pill has been in use for the last 35 years, and has taken precedence over all other Family preparations by all that have used them. Thousands would certify to their great value if necessary. One fact should supercede any amount of certificates, and that fact is this: Dr. Calhoun has been physician to the Fulton County Prison for over seven years, when the number of prisoners ranged from 20 to 70, laboring under all the diseases incidental to this climate. With but few exceptions they have all been treated with this Pill, and astonishing to say during that long period not a solitary death occurred under his treatment. This fact is worth any amount of testimonials.

I am now prepared to fill orders from druggists, merchants and others. All orders sent me shall receive prompt attention. There is no type of FEVER, DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, RHEUMATISM, CHOLERA MORBUS, BILIOUSNESS and SICK HEADACHE, or other diseases of a Southern climate, but yield readily to this preparation.

For sale by all druggists.

Price 50 cents a box.

EYE AND EAR INSTITUTE,

87 Whitehall Street, Atlanta, Ga.

J. W. GURLEY, M.D.,
Surgeon in charge.

WITH THE OTOSCOPE FOR EXAMining the Ear, the Opthalmoscope for examining the Eye, Laryngoscope for the Throat, he is able to detect, and treat successfully, troubles that have heretofore been considered incurable. As to his success in the treatment of Eye diseases, he invites attention to the following certificates:

ANDERSON, S. C., August 1, 1873.

This is to certify that I have been blind for the last three years, during which time I have spent several hundred dollars in trying to obtain relief, but without success. I had almost despaired of ever being able to see, when Dr. J. W. Gurley informed me that my case was Cataract, and by an operation, he believed that he could restore my sight. I consented, and on the 17th of February last, he operated upon my eyes. On the seventh day after, I was able to distinguish objects at a distance. My sight has improved ever since, and now (August 1st) feel that, with the aid of my glasses, I can see as well as any person of my age (67), and am able to attend to all my business—which renders me a happy man, being brought from darkness to light. MATTHEW SNIPES.

WILLIAMSTON, South Carolina.

Dr. Gurley operated on my grandson for crossed eyes, and I can testify to his skill as an Eye Surgeon, by the happy results obtained in this case. The horrible deformity is completely removed, and the young man is rendered happy. WILLIS ALLEN.

BRADLEY'S MILLS, Abbeville C. H., S. C.

I was operated on for Cataract by a skilled surgeon of Augusta, Ga., and after being under his care for about four weeks, was discharged in a worse condition than when I went to him, inflammation having deprived me of the amount of vision I had before the operation. In this condition I consulted Dr. J. W. Gurley, who took my case in hand, and on the fifth day after, I was able to return to my family with the eyesight restored. Dr. Gurley's method of operating and after treatment are different and less painful than any I have undergone. J. B. ROBINSON.

Other references can be furnished as to patients already cured under his treatment.

Arrangements have been made by which patients can obtain board and rooms at from $20 to $40 per month, where they will be under the personal supervision of the surgeon in charge.

OPIUM ANTIDOTE.

Stop, Read, Reflect and Act
Before it is too Late!

OPIUM ANTIDOTE

Is a perfect and painless cure for

The Habitual use of Opium,

in any of its forms, whether as

MORPHINE,
LAUDANUM,
ELIXIR, or GUM OPIUM

It Positively Produces a Permanent Cure.

IT is strange yet true, that as a rule it is the brightest intellects, the best members of society become addicted to this diseased appetite. A habit which makes them slaves, beclouds their minds, ruins their dispositions, and gives them in their more natural moments a hatred of self as well as a feeling that everybody despises them—to such an extent that society has no charms. But thanks to the Giver of all good, this morbid, terrible habit, and degraded condition, as well as all of the desire and feeling for opiates in any form is soon removed by this remarkable antidote, entirely so, and the weakened body and mind are invigorated, given renewed health until love and hope take the place of despondency and doubt. Though you may not be afflicted with the habit of using MORPHINE, LAUDANUM, or other forms of OPIUM, some friend may be, and you know it not, therefore let me ask you, in the name of suffering humanity to pass this on. By so doing you may reap the reward of those who do good. DELAY NOT.
